

Vici Dolls

Vici dolls are a line of customizable dolls that are designed to be a reflection of the child playing with them. They are similar to American Girl dolls, but with a more diverse range of options for customization. Vici doll can be customized in many ways, such as hair color, eye color, skin tone, and freckles, and features like glasses and scarves. The dolls also come with a variety of clothing and accessory options, so children can dress their dolls in a way that reflects their own personal style. Vici dolls are made of high-quality materials and are designed to be durable, so they can withstand regular play. They are recommended for children aged 3 and up. The company behind the dolls also encourages and promotes body positivity, self love and diversity among children

What separates VICI Dolls?

The collections are impeccable, to say the least. Their style of choice is in alignment with the trendiest outfits of the season. As a special discount for the merry festival of Christmas, they have made available 25 days of gifting, with a discount coupon available for everyone who is seeking it, which enables customers to save 20% from their shopping bag.

Is everyone satisfied with VICI Dolls?

There isn't space for the clients to post their reviews online. As a product-based service company, it is imperative to have transparency on the quality of the final product that is provided, and space for testimonials by the users of the product. Unfortunately, there is nowhere on the site, where you could read or write about the product to gain more insight regarding the quality of the product, and customer satisfaction regarding the same. Regular customers suggest visiting the online shop rather than visiting the boutique, for though it contains the best-selling products, the shop is small, and no discount coupons to avail.

FINAL TAKEAWAY:

An Instagram influencer opened up about her journey with and experience with VICI dolls, on her blog, where she advised, that for more promotions, it is best advised to use an online retail store, where sometimes free shipping is available, and snag a deal by splurging on the haul during the final sale.

A downside of using the website could be that VICI doesn't have filters that are helpful during shopping time since they don't tag their products very well. Therefore, since users cannot filter according to the price range, users have to scroll through numerous pages to find the product that fits their taste and is pocket friendly. Despite the lack of a very efficient user interface and a generous customer policy, VICI and their prices during the FINAL SALE are worth it, with free shipping available, and extremely cute and trendy outfits.
